Process After i20 Received

What to Do After Receiving Your I-20

Received your I-20? Great! Your next step is preparing for the F-1 student visa process. Follow this checklist to stay organized.

1. Check & Sign Your I-20

- Check your name and personal information
- Confirm your university and program details
- Check the program start date
- Review the financial information
- Sign and date your I-20

2. Complete the DS-160 Form

- Complete the DS-160 Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application
- Review all information carefully before submitting
- Save your DS-160 Application ID
- Print the DS-160 Confirmation Page

Tip: Make sure the information on your DS-160 matches your passport and I-20.

3. Create Your Visa Appointment Account

- Create your account on the official U.S. visa appointment website
- Enter your personal and visa information correctly
- Keep your login details safe

4. Pay the Visa Application Fee

- Pay the applicable F-1 visa application fee
- Save your payment receipt/confirmation

Keep in mind: Visa fees and payment procedures can change, so always verify the current amount through the official U.S. visa website.

5. Pay the SEVIS I-901 Fee

You'll generally need:

- Passport details
- SEVIS ID from your I-20
- School information from your I-20
- Payment method

After payment:

- Download and print your SEVIS I-901 payment confirmation

6. Schedule Your F-1 Visa Interview

- Select an available interview date
- Confirm your appointment
- Download/print your appointment confirmation

7. Prepare for Your Visa Interview

Prepare your required documents and practice answering common questions about:

- Why you chose the United States
- Why you selected your university
- Why you chose your course/program
- How you will finance your education
- Your academic background
- Your plans after completing your studies

You're Ready for the Next Step!

I-20 Received → DS-160 → Visa Fee → SEVIS Fee → Interview Appointment → Interview Preparation

Visa fees, appointment procedures, and requirements may change. Always verify the latest information through official U.S. government sources before making payments or attending your interview.
